STATE CREDIT.
The papers in this State that have stood by the funding bill as it passed, and most notably among these the Knoxville Union and Herald, the Nashville Union and American and the Memphis Appeal, are sounding the alarm of repudiation because the July interest was not paid. So long as the money could be borrowed no matter at what rate of interest, these journals had no word of complaint to utter. The Legislature which passed the funding act of 1873 left the rate of taxation at forty cents. The State Democratic Convention, which met at Nashville in August, 1874, declared at once in favor of sustaining State credit and against increasing the rate of taxation. The ninety-two Democrats elected to the Legislature on that platform followed the idea and refused to reduce the rate of taxation, although constantly appealed to for measures of relief, and left the finances of the State exactly where the funders did, except to suspend certain heavy penalties on delinquents for the years 1873-'74 until next fall. Collections are not suspended absolutely, as the unpaid taxes are bearing 6 per cent. interest all the while. The men who advocated and passed the funding act declared that forty cents would be enough to meet the interest and current expenses. Their insincerity or lack of judgment is shown in decrying the General Assembly that succeeded for not doing that which they had said was unnecessary. What consistency! What logic! But the funding bill is fastened on the people, and we do not know that they can honorably escape the consequences. The prospect of splendid crops all over the State has produced a hopeful feeling, and the people are willing to pay to the extent of their ability.
They really pay fifty cents, for the State school tax is ten cents. It is said that the State owes two or three hundred thousand dollars borrowed to pay the interest last January. The current expenses are not far from seven hundred thousand dollars. With the resources in sight it is pretty safe to say that after meeting these claims there will not be enough money collected this year to pay all the July interest, but it can be applied as far as it will go.
If the State Comptroller had succeeded in borrowing the money, even at nine per cent., we presume there would be no outcry. The bondholders would have been appeased, and the people as usual would have been saddled with an unnecessary burden. We understand that Colonel Gaines could have borrowed the money at six per cent. on good collaterals, but he only had State bonds paid in by railroads, which bonds have heretofore been received on Wall street, but this time were refused on the ground that having been once paid in they should have been canceled. We are not discussing this branch of the subject, but will remark that very few people outside of the State capital ever dreamed until recently that the Finance Board was in the habit of hypothecating bonds collected from railroads to borrow money.
Such a policy if pursued would be more likely to break down than to sustain the State credit. There is some talk of calling an extra session of the present Legislature. We do not know the exact object or what could be done. The State Board of Finance has all the authority it ever had to borrow money, and the rate of taxation is already fixed for this year beyond recall. If it is proposed as a remedy for present and anticipated deficits, to increase the rate of taxation next year, why let those who are posted say so, and it will be in order to discuss that proposition with the people.

One man in the crowd who owns several razor-backed hogs, suddenly broke in with: "I tell ye what it is, we are all ruined." "Why, how is that?"
exclaimed half a dozen. "Well, now, I'll tell ye; when we don't raise much we get a big price for it, but when such crops are raised as we have this year, everybody will have plenty, and we can't get nothing for it." This was a new and unanswerable argument, and the crowd broke up looking very blue. It will be a great calamity for everybody to have plenty indeed!

MAJOR FRANCIS D. STOCKTON received notice through Adjutant General W. R.
Hamby this morning of his appointment to the vacant Chancellorship, caused by the resignation of Judge Sam P. Walker.
The distinction is well deserved. Governor Porter could not have made a more suitable selection. Major Stockton is a gentleman of superior education and legal attainments. He is a well-read, clear-headed lawyer, and will fill the position to which he is called with dignity and ability.

GENERAL T. C. McMURKIN, of Mississippi, died near Vicksburg on the 12th inst. He was born in South Carolina, and had reached his eightieth year. His residence in Tennessee and Mississippi dates back half a century. He was known far and near, and was unusually beloved and respected for his generosity and solid worth. All his children preceded him to the grave, but his aged wife survives.

THE KNOXVILLE Chronicle gives the comforting assurance that the Republican party is stronger in East Tennessee than it has been in years, and calls on the party to be ready for next summer.
We do not know when it became so.

THE government has a grandson—a little Sartoris of the masculine gender weighing ten and a half pounds—which put in an appearance at Long Branch last Sunday. Name it 'Lissas.

BLOUNT county is assessed at $744 on polls and $2033 on dogs, but very little on sheep. The opposition to the dog law in that county may be imagined.

THE Philadelphia Times heads an article which we have not read: "Have we a Democratic party?" Wait until next year and you will see.

Now that Frank Blair is dead General Sherman modifies what he said about him in his memoirs and praises the dead man without stint.

OHIO has a new law, under which any be sent to jail.

It would be in order now for Beecher to send a letter of condolence to brother takes the name of "Democratic Republicans."

NEW YORK.
New York, July 15.—Very heavy rain storms have taken place in England.
An immense dam in Cinderford Valley, Gloucestershire, burst and flooded the forest of Deas.

The Kings county Grand Jury presented indictments against Joseph Loe-der and John B. Price, charged with having sworn falsely against Henry Ward Beecher and Elizabeth R. Tilton.

A steamer took to day $300,000 in gold coin and $250,000 in silver bars.
Bids for government gold to-day aggregated $1,345,000 at from 114 3/4 to 114 9/16.

From the Territories.
OMAHA, Neb., July 15.—The Herald's special from the Red Cloud agency reports the killing of two Indians and the wounding of three others by soldiers on Little White Earth river. This being in the reservation, the Indians are intensely excited over the occurrence, and all negotiations and work of the Commissioners are entirely suspended. The circumstances attending the affair are not known here.

Specials from points along the line of the Union Pacific railroad, Otoe, Cass and Sarpy counties represent crops as looking fine everywhere. It is expected to harvest at least a two-thirds crop.
The grasshoppers are still flying northwest over some points. Barley and rye are already being harvested at many places. Reports from the southern and southwestern parts of the State are very favorable. The weather is hot and dry north of the Platte river, and a little too much rain in some localities south.

FOREIGN.
LONDON, July 15.—Moody and Sanky sail for the United States August 4.
The Sultan of Zanzibar leaves to-day for the Continent.

It is reported that an insurrection has broken out near Bahama, Burmah.
It is still uncertain whether the American riflemen will shoot at Wimbledon.
Colonel Gildersleeve will confer with Secretary Midway, of the National Rifle Association, and a decision will be reached to-night. It is believed that Bodine and Yale will refuse to shoot under the present proposition.

PARIS, July 15.—Specie in the Bank of France decreased 7,704,000 francs the past week.
ROME, July 15.—The pawn broking department of the Italian government announces the sale of the unredemmed gallery of paintings in November next in eleven lots. If, however, an offer of $15,000 francs for the whole gallery is not made before the time fixed for the sale the pictures will be auctioned off in lots.

Flood at Allegheny.
PITTSBURG, PENN., July 15.—During the heavy rain last night the people residing along Butchers' Run, Allegheny, were forcibly reminded of the flood of last year. The sewers were taxed beyond their capacity and the water rushed along East street to the depth of three feet or more. The frightened inmates of houses took refuge on the hillside, and for a time the air was filled with the screams of women and children. Fortunately the flood soon subsided, and no serious damage was done.

Murder in Chicago.
CHICAGO, July 15.—Clinton Cook and Henry C. Spencer alias John Gallagher, two drunken ruffians, quarrelled in a house of prostitution last night, when the latter shot Cook twice, one of the shots taking effect in the abdomen, causing death a short time afterward.
The murderer is described as one of the most bloodthirsty and wicked of men, with the reputation of a desperado. He formerly lived in St. Louis and claims to be of English birth. He was arrested.

Probabilities.
WASHINGTON, July 15.—For the Tennessee and Ohio valley, falling barometer, southwest to southeast winds, stationary to rising temperature, and clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail with occasional rains in the lower lake region.

River Telegrams.
CAIRO, July 15.—Arrived—Thompson Denn, New Orleans, 9 a. m.; H. S. Turner, Memphis, 10; Idlewild, Evansville, Departed—Turner, Cincinnati, 10 a. m.

CINCINNATI, July 15.—River three-four feet two inches, and rising. Partly cloudy and hot.

Rattlesnake Gall an Antidote for the Bite.
St. Augustine (Florida) Press.) A postoffice agent traveling in Texas tells of the successful use of the gall of a rattlesnake as an antidote for the bite of that reptile. In the case spoken of relief was almost instantaneous to the patient, who was writhing in paroxysms of great pain, rapidly swelling and becoming purple. A friend of the writer, who spent several years in California and New Mexico, saw the same remedy successfully used among the Indians in the latter country. In one instance an Indian's dog near the camp was bitten in the nose by a large rattlesnake. The Indians immediately opened the reptile and administered the gall. The cure was rapid and effectual.

Public horror of the heaviest variety was recently stimulated in an Indiana small town by an announcement of the appearance of "the Micropus Leucoptero-ptor, belonging to the family of Kygnid-es of the true bog; sub-order of Hete-roptera." Women wailed; children howled, men armed themselves with swords and great revolving pistols to encounter the monster. Seeing the mischief which his science had made, the able editor as soon as possible issued an extra explaining that the Micropus-Leucopteros-Kygnid-Heteroptera was only a chinch bug. Then joy returned; and they breathed beautifully once more.

A series of interesting experiments have just been made at Toulon, France, on board an ironclad, for the purpose of working the rudder by steam power. By means of this invention one man can do in ten seconds what it required eight men to perform in a minute and a half under the former system.

New Advertisements.
BOOK AGENTS wanted to sell "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It is the cheapest book ever published: 885 pages, over 250 illustrations, $1.50. Thousands buy it at sight who could not be induced to purchase the high-priced books treating of Domestic Medicine. Unlike other books sold through agents, this work is thoroughly advertised throughout North America. This fact, together with the large size, elegant appearance, and many new features of the book, causes it to sell more rapidly than any work ever published in this country. Those of my agents who have had experience in selling books, say that in all their previous canvassing they never met with such success or made so large wages, as since commencing the sale of my work. For terms and territory, ad-

BONDS.
Local Agents Wanted.
An Agent Wanted for Each Town and County in the United States.
Parties desiring to act as agents must accompany their application by letter of recommendation as to character and responsibility from and signed by the editor of a newspaper published in the town or county for which agent proposes to act. The agency is to sell the bonds of the Industrial Exhibition Company.
Bonds $20 each.
The Industrial Exhibition Company will furnish agents with Circulars, etc., etc.
Each newspaper published in the town where agent is located will, as soon as agency is established, be given an advertisement, advertising such agency and the company, and fully explaining the plans, purposes and objects of the Company. Such advertisement will continue in such papers as long as agency is successfully conducted.
The Industrial Exhibition Company is the first to adopt the plan so long in use by the European governments of issuing bonds when the principal is made secure and not risked, but where there is a chance for a large premium, an investment of $20 is sure to return to the investor $21—one dollar more than cost —and the holder of a $20 Bond may obtain a premium either of $50, $100, $200, $400, $1000, $2000, $5000, $10,000, $25,000 or $100,000. The interest, which is ordinarily distributed to all the bond-holders pro rata, is in this loan distributed by chance. The purchaser of a bond knows he will receive back his investment, with a small rate of interest added, and in consideration of taking this small rate of interest, he has a chance in the above named premiums, which are simply the distribution of interest on the whole loan.
Each bond participates in four drawings each year, until it has drawn a premium, when it is surrendered, the premium paid, and the bond canceled.
The Industrial Exhibition Company, under a special charter, granted by the State of New York, is given authority to issue these bonds.
The Legislature of the State, recognizing the great benefits which will arise from the success of this enterprise, have exempted all the real estate and property of the Company from taxation and assessments for five years, and has also conferred other great privileges.
Every American who understands the purposes of this Company will, of a necessity, feel a pride in aiding it to a successful termination.
Each individual who buys a bond becomes an owner and an interested party, and when he views the structure erected with his money can say, "I aided to erect in our country the most magnificent building the world has ever seen, a palace which, in truth, represents the industry, energy and mechanical genius of the American people."
The manufacturers and the inventors of America are peculiarly interested in the success of this enterprise, for the reason that it is to be their home, where all their inventions and manufactures can be exhibited and sold.
The building will contain 5,520,000 square feet of space.
Purchasers desiring Bonds before an agency is established where they reside, will communicate direct with this office, from where they can be supplied.
Parties desiring to act as agents or to purchase bonds will address
